A Good Showing for a Governor.

Booth that his hesitating mind is pardoning convicts, and especially those convicts who have a large number of ladies on their side.

Gov. Dix Refuses to Interfere in Foster's Case—Battle Between Prize Fighters, etc.
(Special to the Cincinnati Commercial.) New York, March 14.—The announcement that Governor Dix had decided to let the law take its course with Foster reached the public late this evening and caused great surprise, as Albany rumors for the last week indicated that his sentence would surely be commuted. The general sentiment is largely in favor of hanging Foster, though a tremendous stir has been made in his behalf by Episcopal clergymen, lawyers and other interested parties.
When Foster heard to-night that he must prepare for the scaffold, he dropped into a seat and burst into tears. The news caused a complete revelation in the demeanor of the condemned man, who had fully expected a reprieve. He was led to his cell, unwept and broken down. The Sheriff has begun preparations for his execution next Friday, and placed a double watch over Foster's cell to prevent suicide.
Foster's friends say to-night that some hope yet remains, and that their resources are not exhausted. What they mean, if anything, remains to be developed.
The prize-fighting fraternity made up for their recent fiasco by a rattling battle this afternoon in the counting-room of the Clippers office. George Seddons and Arthur Chambers met there, to settle the preliminaries for their light-weight championship mill. Chambers accused Seddons of an intention to back down, and gave him a convincing answer. A slashing fight followed, which was interrupted by bystanders, but renewed for the second time. Finally Frank Queen stopped hostilities, but not before both men had provided each other with battered eyes and mashed noses.
The punishment was about equally divided.
Seven distinguished medical gentlemen yesterday visited the Tombs to pass upon the sanity of George Francis Train and two prisoners held for murder. The seven doctors entered Train's cell without previous notice, and conversed with him for half an hour. Train bombarded them with epigrams, and described, in his peculiar style, the horrors of life in the Tombs.
He said he would not go out on bail, because he was not a criminal. The Church, he stated, has committed suicide through Wm.
Dodge. The decision of the Medical Commission has done but little to improve his opinion, but it is rumored they will advise Train's removal to an asylum.
WASHINGTON.
Brother in Law Casey Renomiated.
(Special to New York Tribune.) Washington, March 14.—There is considerable comment at the renomination by the President of his brother-in-law, James F.
Casey, as Collector of Customs at New Orleans. The impression was a year ago that the President was anxious to have Casey resign. This was immediately after the return of the select committee of Congress appointed to investigate the condition of affairs in Louisiana. Judge Scholfield, of Pennsylvania, who was chairman of the committee, called upon the President before the evidence they had taken was made public and advised him to remove Casey. His argument was that, in the course of the investigation, Casey figured rather badly, and in such a way as to injure the Administration. The President then intimated that he would remove Casey, and it is said he addressed him a letter of resignation. For the reason given or other, it was not forthcoming.
Casey was opposed to having his renomi-nation sent in at the session of the Senate, but there was such a pressure for the place that the President had to decide between Casey and his resignation. There will be a fight over his confirmation.
ILLINOIS.
Navigation—Labor Movement—Striking Oil.
LA SALLE, March 14.—The Illinois river is still falling and has fallen about two feet in the last forty-eight hours. There is still a good navigable stage of water. There are now ten canal boats lying at Peru waiting to go below, and the same number at this point where they are waiting with anxiety for the first opportunity to go below. No steamers have arrived.
CHICAGO, March 15.—The Trades Assembly held a meeting last night and indulged in strong speeches in favor of eight hours work.
It is evident that our mechanics are growing restless and inclined to join in a general movement for higher pay and fewer hours.
The newly discovered oil well near Des Moines, Iowa, is causing great excitement.
A tank is being built and more pipe will be added to carry the oil and water to the tank.
When completed yesterday, the gas made fully as loud a noise as when first opened, and was plainly heard half a mile distant and the ground shook and trembled for some rods about the well. The well is exciting great interest in this part of the State, and hundreds of people are flocking to the shaft to look below the surface and to see below the bottom of the Des Moines river.
KENTUCKY.
End of the Harper Suit—Verdict for the Defendant—Harper Seeks Justice With a Pistol.
LEXINGTON, March 14.—The great Harper suit has closed, after a prolonged investigation, with a verdict for the defendant.
The event of the day was a sensation which occurred after the adjournment of the Court.
John W. Harper, son of Adam Harper, plaintiff in the action, under the influence of whisky and aggravated by the verdict, made an attack on L. D. Maitland, reporter of the Lexington Daily Press, and drew a pistol on him. Finding Maitland as quick as he was, he stopped on him, and struck a blow on his forehead. Captain Joe Blackburn, one of the attorneys for the defendant, drew a pistol on Blackburn, who also drew his pistol. Just at this juncture Marshal Sinclair interposed and took hold of Harper, who sought to free himself. Blackburn stood still with a drawn pistol, ready to meet him. Blackburn remarked: "Let the damned assassin go; I am not afraid of him." I don't want to shoot him while in your custody."

OHIO.
Shooting for Love.
CENTREVILLE, March 15.—John Kelley, a young man of the place was Thursday evening shot by a young lady named Ella Benham. It appears that they were lovers, and Kelley had proven false to her and was paying attention to another lady. He is in a dangerous condition and it is feared will not recover. Both parties are of good families.
The young lady gave herself up to the authorities.
CINCINNATI, March 15.—G. A. Mullen fell near the railroad crossing on Front street and was injured so, that he became insensible and soon died.
INDIANA.
Killed by the Cars.
LOGANSBURG, March 15.—T. D. Clark, in the yard of Pan Handle Railroad was run over by a freight train at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. His right thigh was cut off near his hip joint. The leg was terribly mutilated. His left leg was amputated at the knee and his right foot crushed. He died in about an hour.
IOWA.
Thunder and Hail Storm.
CEDAR RAPIDS, March 15.—The first thunder and lightning storm of the season, accompanied by rain and hail, passed over this city yesterday. At Charles City, Iowa, the lightning struck a telegraph pole, burned the telegraph instruments, and killed a horse hitched to the pole.
STATE NEWS.
Peanut eating in church is a Shelbyville wickedness.
A sea serpent is converting the marshes of Tipton into a howling wilderness.
It is rumored that a man who has just died in Evansville confessed to assisting in the destruction of the Barnes will.
Joseph Jagers, of Evansville, pulled his loaded gun out of a skiff by the muzzle. His next boat ride was in Charon's wherry.
A fire in Gavrik's packing house, at Evansville, on Thursday, damaged about 20,000 pounds of smoked meats. Insured for $1, 500.
A little girl visiting at the house of Mrs.
Dahm at Fort Wayne got to fooling with the Dahm pistol, and the old thing went off, inflicting a very severe wound in the thigh of Mrs. Dahm.
It is reported that some of the Clay county strikers are becoming shaky, and that some of the men at Morrison's mine will go to work on Monday under contract for a year at reduced wages.
A party of disguised men, offended at the alleged unchaste conduct of a widow and three daughters and a man residing in the neighborhood of Corydon, went to their respective houses and gave them a sound thrashing.
A lough 'un is Eli H. Thomburg of Windsor, Randolph county. A green oak saw log, twelve feet long and three feet in diameter, rolled over him, when he got up, respectfully suggested the condemnation of that stick of timber by competent authority, and went on with his work.
A gentleman serenely sleeping in his pew in a little church in Pike county, was rudely awakened by a William goat, which butted him clean out of time and almost into eternity. William thought the gentleman's head was nodded in recognition, and was not to be outdone in politeness.
A girl twenty-two years old, daughter of Abraham M' Coy, living near Corydon, disappeared last week, and no traces of her can be found. She was very low spirited, and it is feared she has committed suicide, though some suppose she has been murdered or abducted. Her parents are both confined to their beds by illness, induced by excessive grief.
On Thursday evening, in New Albany, while several little children were playing on the track of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad, a switch engine, backing out of a siding, ran over three of them. One, named Franklin Scott, three years old, was horribly mangled, his head being nearly severed from his body, and crushed into a dozen pieces.
A short time ago a tube for a well was being sunk on the farm of Jacob Young, in Noble county, on the highest point of land between Chicago and Toledo. When it had reached a depth of fifty-three feet a test was made for water, but instead of water a current of pure air rushed out from the tube and continued with a steady flow for five days, with such force that the noise made by it could be heard at a distance of several rods. It then ceased, and the air began to flow into the tube with equal velocity. While the current was issuing from the tube, fire dropped to the bottom of it continued to burn brightly.
Burns Not a Drunkard.
George MacDonald says that Burns was not a drunkard. He left the account books of his office in perfect order, owed nothing, but paid his debts as he went, and wrote some of his best at the end of his career—"A Man's Man for a That" among the last. "This," says the lecturer, "is not the story of a drunkard."

The Modern Trifles.
Cincinnati Commercial.
Wendell Phillips does his head and heart honor in the letter on the censure of Chas.
Sumner by Massachusetts. The letter is a noble one. Massachusetts can not afford to degrade herself because Sumner told the truth about Grant.
The Electricity of Wisdom.
Ralph Waldo Emerson.
Wisdom is like electricity. There is no personality with man, but men capable of wisdom, who, being put into certain circuits, or other favorable conditions, become wise for a short time, as glasses rubbed acquire electric power for awhile.
Unlucky for Caldwell.
Springfield Republican.
Senator Caldwell continues to wish that the angels had taken Mr. Morton, who he was an innocent baby. Unlucky for Senator Caldwell, however, they didn't.
Plain Talk for Some People.
Jocims Froda.
There are but three ways of living, as some one has said, by working by begging, or by stealing. Those who do not work, disguise it in whatever pretty language we please, are doing one of the other two.
